THE PERFECT LOCATION

The University of Maryland is located in the heart of “Top Secret America” and within miles of every major U.S. national security agency. Such a perfect location gives Philip Merrill College of Journalism students the unique opportunity to examine, understand and report on the most important government activities and debates of our day. Our graduate and undergraduate journalism programs offer students the practical courses, investigative focus and proximity to experts and decision-makers to make this possible. Come to where ground-breaking journalism can make a difference.
